Chamber Banquet Set Friday Night at Eight For Awards Presentation

Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce Executive Secretary Jewel Crane said Tuesday tickets are still available for the Annual Chamber banquet Friday, which features U.S. Rep. Paul Rogers as the main speaker.

The installation banquet program reads like a Who's Who in Belle Glade and will begin at 8 p.m. at Belle Glade Elks Lodge 1716.

The highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the chamber's annual Man of the Year Award, the Police Officer of the Year and the Agri-Industrial Award.

The toastmaster for the evening will be Robert C. "Bob" Lee and the Rev. Mark O'Farrell will give the invocation. Dr. John Grady will give the welcome.

Following the presentation of the President's Report by outgoing President Ben Clarke, the chamber's board of directors and executive directors for the coming year will be installed by E.W. "Bud" Weaver.

The Executive Directors for 1974 will include B.

Carlton "Bob" White as president, Roy Burch as first vice president, Louis Kirchman as second vice president, Curtis Thompson Jr. as Treasurer and Jewel A. Crane as Executive Secretary.

The board of directors will be rounded out when Weaver installs Robert Pease, Wayne Mikell, Ben Clarke, Ercel Mixson, Charles Ward, Earl Meredith, Alvaro Sanchez and Horace Harris.

Louis Kirchman and outgoing directors Lee Berryhill and Pete Kirchman arranged the banquet as the banquet committee and Mixson provided floral decorations.

For the second time in recent weeks, Fr-Eddy's Catering Service will cater a chamber function with a menu featuring New York Strip Steak.

Rounding out the meal will be fruit cocktail, baked potato, tossed salad and cheese cake.

Tickets for the banquet can still be purchased at the chamber building Main Street and Avenue A, according to Miss Crane.

Ag Burning Not Holding Up Grant Money--Weaver

An agricultural exemption to the Palm Beach County Environmental Pollution Control Act is not, as claimed by some, the reason federal grant monies are being withheld according to County Commissioner E.W. "Bud" Weaver.

The exemption, which became a controversial issue a year ago when environmental control officers said it would stop federal grants, was re-opened this week with a letter to Florida Sugar Cane League President George Wedgworth. Wedgworth said in a conversation Wednesday morning the letter from county Environmental Control Officer Dennis P. Koehler was being placed before him by his secretary at that time and he hadn't had a chance to read it.

The letter had already drawn fire Tuesday, however, in the regular Palm Beach County Commission meeting from Commissioners Weaver and Robert Johnson.

"There is no legal hangup,"

Weaver said Wednesday. "That's what everyone's trying to hang their hat on but the real problem is there is only 'X' amount of dollars to go around the state and Hillsborough County came up with all kinds of reasons they needed it."

Gene Sacco, of the Environmental Control offices in West Palm Beach, said the county is missing out on $70,000 to $80,000 because the commission and the state insist on maintaining the agricultural exemption to the county act.

Wedgworth and Weaver pointed out, however, the state was able to channel grant money to the county last year and while the amount was cut back this year, the county still hasn't been entirely cut off.

Weaver said the county commission passed a resolution

Tuesday to attempt to find funds to the county program.

"This was basically because the industry has spent beaucoup dollars on stock emission control devices," Weaver said, "and we need the county program to continue monitoring the air to find just how effective the devices are."

Weaver and Wedgworth also agreed they are still against removing the exemption for agriculture, "but they didn't have to send us a five-page letter to get us to talk," Wedgworth said. "We're ready to talk anytime."

He said the primary reason the sugar industry is against lifting the agricultural exemption, which was placed in the act by the state legislature, is because the industry, while in one contiguous area, is spread over four counties.

He and Weaver said they felt it to be in the best interests of both the industry and the public to keep responsibility for regulating the industry on one level.

The industry is presently being regulated by the state Department of Pollution Control office in Punta Gorda although the entire industry falls in the district with headquarters in Fort Lauderdale, supposedly because the Fort Lauderdale office had too heavy a workload while it was still in charge of the sugar industry.

Wedgworth also pointed out that no fewer than three agencies and boards last year had decided to maintain the agricultural exemption, including the county legislative delegation and the county commission sitting as the Environmental Control Board.

Turlington to Tour Area Public Schools

Recently-appointed State Commissioner of Education Ralph Turlington will be in the Glades today in an attempt to hold onto his post after the general election on Nov. 5.

Turlington is expected to tour the Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative of Florida sugar mill, the West Area Exceptional Child Education Center at Gove Elementary School and other facilities.

The former state legislator from Gainesville was appointed to his post by Gov. Reubin Askew after he had declared himself in the race for the state education position and former Commissioner Floyd T. Christian.

Using a power base built on 24 years in the state legislature, Turlington handily defeated four Democratic opponents and now faces Republican Carl M. Kuttler Jr. of St. Petersburg.

"He has been a classroom teacher and is a turgid member of the University of Florida faculty in the College of Business Administration. Turlington has the reputation of being an intense intellectual and was graduated magna cum laude with a grade point average of 3.85 from the University of Florida College of Business Administration. He received his master's degree in business administration from Harvard University.

"I seek this office," Turlington said, "not just to participate in problem solving in education, where so much of my legislative career has been spent, but to look toward the future and new challenges, instead of perpetuating past procedures, needless paperwork and red tape."

"I intend to lead, not a department of schools," he said when he declared his candidacy, "which we have now, but truly a department of education."

Lions Selling Lightbulbs

Save sight, buy light! That's the motto of the Belle Glade Lions Club members who'll be knocking on your door tonight to sell light bulbs in their annual effort to raise funds for sight conservation.

Lions President Lenwood Fuller said the Lions would be canvassing the entire Belle Glade area tonight, selling packages of light bulbs for $2 each.

Light Sale Committee Chairman William Schoenfeld said the bulbs are packaged with two 60-watt, two 75-watt and two 100-watt bulbs in each grouping.

Proceeds will generally go toward the Lions' Sight Conservation program, with funds being channelled to the Lions' Eye Bank, to give glasses for those who can't afford to pay for their own and for such industries as the Lions' workshop in West Palm Beach which is staffed and works for the blind.

Hurl That Spheroid!

Jorge Echave puts everything into this pass as he hurls the football far down the field. But Echave, who quarterbacked most of the way for the Glades Day school Gators didn't have to go to the air too many times against Vero Beach St. Edwards as his team racked up 280 yards on the ground and 48 points on the scoreboard. It was the Gators first victory of the year and came at their homecoming celebrations. For more staff pictures and a complete story please turn to page 7A.

Next Friday Starts Beautification Week

The first week of November 1974 has been set aside in Belle Glade as the city-wide Beautification Week.

The week of Nov. 3 through 10 is the time to paint-up, fix-up, clean-up, say the members of the Beautification Committee of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Robert Allen of the Agricultural Research and Education Center named chairman in charge of coordinating the activities of Beautification Week.

A contest is being held to name the elf which the Beautification Committee has adopted as their official symbol.

A $25 savings bond will be awarded the person submitting the winning name. All entries must be received by Nov. 1. Entries should be mailed or delivered to the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce, and it should be made certain that name and address are included.

Area businesses and residents are encouraged to help make Belle Glade a cleaner place in which to live.

Scouts To Give Award

The 1974 Glades Scouting District Award of Merit recipient will be chosen at 7:30 tonight when the district awards committee will meet in South Bay but no one else will know who the recipient is until the annual recognition pot luck dinner is held.

The annual dinner will take place in Jameson Hall at the Community United Methodist Church on Nov. 14 and Mrs. Virginia Walker, the dinner and awards chair-lady, is already sending out preliminary notices.

About those Amendments

While quite a few words have been written about the candidates in various races coming up in Nov.-5 general election, there are also seven amendments little has been said about.

Those voters interested in studying the proposed amendments in depth may order special pamphlet number 54 "Proposed Amendments to the Florida Constitution, November 5, 1974" from the Public Administration Clearing Service, University of Florida, Gainesville, Fla., for the price of 25 cents.

In our opinion, voters would do well to vote "Yes" to amendments two, four, and five and "No" to numbers one, three, six and seven for the following reasons.

The first amendment on the ballot calls for the use of state gross receipts tax on utilities to be applicable as a revenue bond pledged by the state board of education and the legislature.

The key section amendment is that it would allow the state cabinet and legislature, about 75 busy state officials, to decide to pledge state revenues for educational bonds.

If it is approved, the state will have come a long way from the 1885 constitution which allowed similar credit transactions only "to repel invasion and put down insurrection."

We sympathize with educators who need money for capital outlay, especially in the light of school bond referendums in the recent past, but we believe the taxpayer should have the final word on such large outlays of public money.

We vote "No" to amendments one.

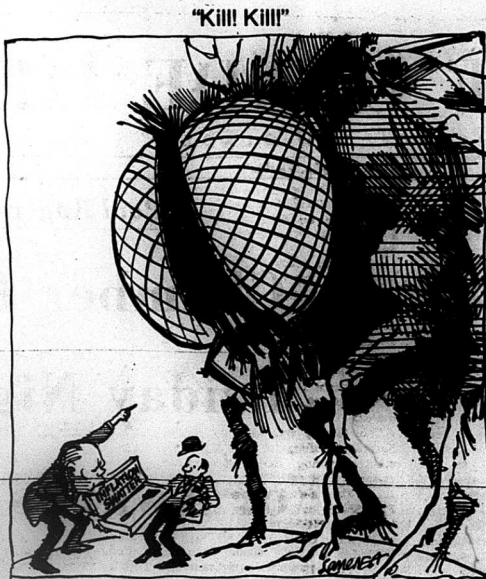

Amendment number two essentially adds "other transportation facilities, including terminals" to roads when it comes to the outlay of the two cents per gallon State Roads Distribution Fund gasoline tax.

We believe this would make the state gas tax uses more flexible without taking the money out of transportation. Vote Yes.

The third amendment would change the title of the county "tax assessor" to "property appraiser". While the second title may more accurately describe his duties, most people already know what a tax assessor does and we feel this is just another attempt for a more prestigious sounding title. We vote No.

The fourth amendment would bring the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission more under the control of the state legislature. Since the sale of hunting and fishing licenses no longer pay the way, we feel this is only reasonable.

We vote Yes. Let the state senate approve appointments to the commission and bring the commission's budgetary and personnel planning under the legislature.

Don't Forget I-95

Dear Sir:

Let us not forget that the Department of Transportation, under Governor Reuben Askew's administration, has not completed one inch of I-95 during his three and three-quarters years as Governor.

"Must we contend with this lack of action in spite of his promises during campaigning? Maybe the election of an East Florida Governor is the only solution to the I-95 development problem."

Sincerely,
B.B. Nelson

you and your FUTURE!

IF YOU'RE NOT ONE OF THE 125 MILLION AMERICANS WHO OWN A LIFE INSURANCE POLICY, CHANCES ARE THERE WILL BE A LIFE INSURANCE AGENT IN YOUR FUTURE. A GOOD AGENT CAN SAVE YOU THOUSANDS AND ACTUALLY WILL ADD TO YOUR PACE OF LIFE THROUGH THE BEST POSSIBLE PROGRAM DESIGNED TO PROMOTE FUTURE FINANCIAL SECURITY FOR YOU AND YOUR FAMILY.

WE'RE BEST ADVICE IN CHOOSING AN AGENT IS TO KEEP IN MIND THOSE QUALITIES THAT EXPECTS LOOK FOR IN MAKING THEIR CHOICE.

1. KNOWLEDGE. A GOOD AGENT NEVER STOPS LEARNING AS OF THE LATEST KNOWLEDGE OF INSURANCE CONCEPTS AND FINANCIAL PLANNING. THIS CAN MEAN LONG HOURS OF STUDY TO STAY THE CURRENT LIFE INSURANCE INDUSTRY.

2. EMPATHY. A GOOD AGENT MUST BE ABLE TO PUT HIMSELF IN YOUR POSITION AND FEEL YOUR PERSONAL NEEDS FOR FINANCIAL SECURITY FOR YOUR FUTURE.

3. DEDICATION. A GOOD AGENT IS A HARD WORKER WHO GIVES YOU TOTAL CONCENTRATION WHILE HELPING TO WORK OUT THE RIGHT PROGRAM FOR YOU.

4. FOLLOW-UP. A GOOD AGENT ALWAYS KEEPS YOU UP-TO-DATE ON ADVANCES IN INSURANCE COVERAGE, AND NEVER LETS YOUR PERSONAL INSURANCE PROGRAM GET OUT-DATED.

5. CITIZEN. A GOOD AGENT GIVES FREELY OF HIS TIME TO THE CIVIC AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES OF YOUR COMMUNITY.

LAST YEAR, AMERICANS PURCHASED $162.8 BILLION (FACE VALUE) IN VOLUNTARY LIFE INSURANCE. MOST OF THAT PURCHASED WITH THE HELP AND COUNSEL OF AN AGENT. SO WHEN YOU CHOOSE YOUR OWN AGENT, KEEP IN MIND THE ABOVE QUALITIES. THE EXPERTS AT METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY DO WHEN THEY EMPLOY THEIR LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE AND THE 22,000 OTHER AGENTS WHO SERVE THE COMPANY'S MILLIONS OF POLICYHOLDERS.

off the record

with Glenn Laney

I would like to thank Bob White and Tom Altman for contributing to the Glenn H. Laney Jr. slush fund.

Both misguided young men placed football bets with me on their alma mater against my alma mater. Unfortunately for them they graduated from Florida State. Me-I'm a Gator.

Florida prevailed 24-14 (the game wasn't as close as the score indicates) thereby lengthening FSU's nation leading losing streak to 18. The Gators, on the other hand, rebounded from a humiliating defeat at the hands of the Vanderbilt Commodores.

The Vanderbilt defeat was made all that more humiliating when the Commodores lost to, of all people, the Georgia Bulldogs. I mean, anybody who can't beat Georgia shouldn't be playing even small college football. Why, Ben Clarke's alma mater even lost to the Temple cheerleaders in a practice game before the beginning of the season.

But, I digress from the mainstream of this afternoon's symposium.

When I collected my wager from Tom Altman (on the golf course, where else) a friend who was with me and witnessed the transaction said, "but isn't gambling illegal."

I replied that there was no gamble involved when one bet against FSU. It was a sure thing.

Bob White, much older than young Tom and therefore much wiser, (I guess) played his cards a little closer to the vest.

When I called on him to collect he said, no, he wanted to go double or nothing with me when Auburn comes to play Florida at Florida Field later in the year. I told him there was nothing I would like better than to win twice as much money from him.

For you see, this truly is the year of the Gator, despite the fiascos at Vanderbilt. Florida will go undefeated the rest of the year and then meet Alabama in the Orange Bowl to decide the champion of the Southeastern Conference. Both teams, you see, will come into the contest with one SEC loss on their records, Alabama losing to Auburn.

I'm already sending away for my tickets.

It is quite easy to sit back and criticize the Chamber of Commerce. But the Chamber is really no stronger than its members want to make it. This Friday the Chamber is having its annual awards banquet. The featured speaker is the very popular Paul Rogers who is always both entertaining and interesting.

Board of Directors member Louis Kirckman is furnishing the steaks and that always means a good feed.

This is a pleasant evening for all concerned. The Chamber is going to give out its annual awards, including the man of the year award.

It is a chance for every member to support the Chamber. But it can only be a success if the members want it to be. And the best way to assure a success is to be there.

You still have time to call Jewel Crane at the Chamber and reserve your tickets. Think about it, then do it. It's your Chamber, help make it a success.

The Palm Beach Rehabilitation Center at Belle Glade has been making tremendous strides lately.

It has just recently opened a resale store on Ave. A where you can buy reconditioned goods at very moderate prices. All of the proceeds from the store go to the center out here in the Glades.

To top that off, the Glades center just received the first year of what is supposed to be a half-million dollar grant. It is to be spread out over three years of $166,666.66. The money will go toward helping the mentally, physically and socially handicapped.

The center is providing a much needed service for Belle Glade. It is training people and putting them to work, taking them off the welfare rolls. But it can only achieve ultimate success when the entire community gets behind it. Each and every one of you can do this in at least two different ways.

If you are a businessman and you could use a handicapped worker-get in touch with the center's director, Bob Karpel, OR, if you have some old clothes or furniture around the house, or anything you want to get rid of, call Karpel and he will make sure somebody comes around to pick it up.

Remember, the center's success depends on the community. It is working to help you-you should work to help it.

People once thought that guardian angels stood at either ear and touched the right if someone spoke favorably of their patron, the left if ill.

Some People Get Hot at Glades Central Games

I knew when I sat down to write this column I'd forgotten something.

I was talking with a couple of other Raider fans earlier this week about the Super Bad Defense (when you talk about Glades Central you just gotta

Barry's World

"Amnesty" is such an interesting subject - don't you think so?"

say it with a capital "D") and we figured they must be getting sorta close to setting some kind of record.

I mean, when a team plays 18 consecutive quarters of football without allowing anyone to score on it, that's Dee-fense! Matter of fact, this team could have easily gone the entire season so far without being scored on.

The only touchdown they've allowed this year, that lonely six pointer made by Atlantic, was set up by a boo-boo, a fumble on their own 13 yard line.

So I had intended to get in touch with someone who would know what the record is, or whether anyone has allowed fewer points over a longer period of time, but I got busy as usual and forgot it.

They could be putting themselves in the way of a test against Key West this week though. The Raiders have been playing teams so far who've had ground-oriented attacks.

Key West however, according to Al Werneke, has put the ball in the air an average of 30 times per game. It could be a new experience for the Raiders.

I just hope it isn't the same kind of experience my Gators had against Vanderbilt. Seems like every time the Commodores found themselves in an obvious passing situation, they passed; and connected...and the result is still too nauseating to think about.

the locker rooms.

This one involved a Suncoast coach who lit into a Raider player and coach and had to be dragged away.

Anyone can get hot during a game, especially if they're losing, but you'd think a coach would have more cool than that.

Another place you could lose your cool too, if you're like me, is in one of the local bank's parking lots.

There's never enough hours in the day to do everything I've got to do, it seems, and anything, like these drive-in banking windows, I can go for. But some people seem to think the thing to do is park their car and walk up to the window. Since there may be several cars waiting, they can get to the window much faster than if they wait in line.

Which is great for them, but it leaves anyone waiting where they're supposed to be more than a little fuming.

But I guess it's nothing more than one more breakdown in common courtesy and the only thing to do is wait for someone to run them down...God knows, I've wanted to often enough.

I've heard about people before who could supposedly foul up a free meal but this week, I heard about a guy who managed to foul up his own birthday party...at least that's what one of "the girls" said.

Seems a few of "the girls" decided to throw a surprise wedding Monday night for Dick May down at Lily Audrey's in South Bay.

Trouble is, they couldn't find Dick when the time came to surprise him. That's okay, though, Dick. I understand they had a great time opening your presents anyway.

Maybe next year...

Jennilee Smith Selected 1st Runnerup

Miss Jennilee Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.G. Smith, 1740 S.E. Ave. K place in Belle Glade, was recently selected first runner-up in homecoming ceremonies at Troy State University.

A 1971 graduate of Glades Central High School, Miss Smith is a junior at Troy and is majoring Secondary Education.

A member of Kappa Delta sorority and sponsored by the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, she was one of 35 contestants entered in the contest.

Library News

A recent acquisition of the Belle Glade Municipal Library is the reference work entitled BICENTENNIAL SOURCE BOOK. This source book is an effort to collect and organize available data on the Bicentennial programs and plans of public and private organizations at the national, regional, state and local levels.

The content of the Source book, and its accompanying Update Service through July 1978, is related to three needs that have been expressed by Bicentennial planners.

The reader should be able to gain an accurate general overview of Bicentennial plans and programs not otherwise easily attainable without significant investments of time.

Secondly, the Source book should be a handy reference guide to active Bicentennial programmers to help identify opportunities for financial and technical assistance, and for the exchange of information that will enhance their program. More than 2,000 separate Bicentennial programs and activities are discussed.

The Source book also should help broaden the Bicentennial planner's capability in executing projects. The update Service is currently working on a survey of major philanthropic foundations that may be interested in specific kinds of Bicentennial projects, etc.

The BICENTENNIAL SOURCE BOOK will be on display this week at the Belle Glade Municipal Library. Information on How to Become a Bicentennial Community will be available.

The NEW YORK TIMES LARGE TYPE WEEKLY is another new addition to the growing library collection. This newspaper gives a quick review of the past week's news in an easy-to-read format, that of the LARGE TYPE.

GHOST STORIES AND FILMS will highlight the hour from 4-5 p.m. on Oct. 29, 30, and 31. Come and be scared!

The library will have its regular Saturday Children's Film Hour 2-3 p.m., featuring movie shorts and cartoons. ITS FREE!

Plan ahead! A special PUPPET SHOW will be given during the week of NOVEMBER 11-15 to celebrate CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK.

Hobgoblins and Ghosts to be Order of the Day

Hobgoblins and ghosts are the order of the day as kids all over the Glades prepare for Halloween with an assortment of parties and carnivals.

South Bay and Rosendal Elementary Schools will combine efforts for their annual Halloween Carnival, Saturday at South Bay Park just off U.S. 27 and a parade will lead the way at 4 p.m.

The carnival, sponsored by the PTA's at the two schools, will officially get under way at 8 p.m. with the opening of the booths.

Activities will include: a rummage sale, a spooky house, a cake walk, a fish pond, a haunted house, a dart game, bean bag throw and a sponge throw.

The carnival will also feature a drawing for a Pearce Simpson Buick 23-channel mobile citizens band radio as first prize and a Blue Diamond billiard cue stick with carrying case as the second prize.

Once the games and activities have whetted the carnival goers' appetites, there will be enough food to satisfy them.

Tom Hayes to

Come to Boca

Raton to Aid

Palm Beach County residents experiencing problems with federal government agencies can present their cases to a representative of U.S. Sen. Lawton Chiles on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 29 and 30.

Tom Hayes, Sen. Chiles' South Florida district assistant, will be available in West Palm Beach and Boca Raton for face-to-face visits.

On Tuesday, October 29, Hayes will be in the West Palm Beach Library Board Room, 100 Clematis Street, West Palm Beach, from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 4 p.m.

On Wednesday, October 30, he will be at the Boca Raton, from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 4 p.m.

According to Sen. Chiles, Hayes will be able to assist constituents with problems dealing with social security, medicare and Medicaid, veterans' benefits, internal revenue, disability compensation and in general with all federal agencies where communications and assistance has broken down.

Chiles has just initiated this constituent service and said Hayes will be regularly visiting in a number of South Florida counties.

Featured snacks include hot dogs, hamburgers, steak sandwiches, corn on the cob, popcorn, candied apples, cake, pie and any of several types of hot and cold drinks.

Another carnival will take place at St. Peter's Lutheran School at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, getting cranked up with a costume parade at 5 p.m.

Tickets for the carnival will go for 20 cents each. Activities include an auction, a drawing for a 19 inch television, balloons, a grab box for boys and another for girls, a cake walk, hay ride, a hay stack, a minisax, a fish pond, a duck pond, a haunted house, dart game, bean bag throw and a sponge throw.

Glades Auxiliary Sees Film Showing

The Glades Auxiliary of the Children's Home Society met Oct. 10 at the Belle Glade Library. Mrs. B. Carlton White showed the film "Someone Cares". The film explained some of the services provided the Children's Home Society of Florida and showed the Division office buildings throughout the state.

The United Way sent their thanks for the typing done by the Auxiliary and will honor all the workers in the Glades area with a luncheon on Nov. 6.

Under discussion as a new project was having a float in the Christmas parade. The holiday and all-occasion napkins were passed out and are now for sale. Refreshments were served.

Attending the meeting were associate member Mrs. Wayne Tullos, new members Mrs. Marie Causey, Mrs. Ralph Blair, and active members Mrs. W.H. Steel-belted Silent Guard. Two layers of steel cord grid this tire—important layers to have when you run over a pothole or rock. Steel resists cuts better than our other belting materials. Belts work with the plies to keep tread stable—and a stable tread wears better than a squirming one. Polyester won't flat spot like nylon can. Wide "78 Series" design is like most new car tires—low and brassy. See Guarantee on opposite page.

Pedrito Rubiales
Por Ramon Corona

"Belle Glade se ha vuelto a vestir de luto por la desaparición de la vida de Pedro Rubiales, un antiguo y queridísimo vecino de este pueblo. Era doctor en Farmacia y cuando vino al desierto, en su afán de hallar medios de vivir se olvidó del doctorado y adquirió una bodega que muy pronto se llenó de clientes por la simpatía del dueño, la bodega cubana o el Latin Grocery era una especie de Club donde, a diario, se reunían los cubanos para platicar sobre las cosas de la tierra y a lamentar la infinita nostalgia que producía la lejanía. Naturalmente prospero en el Grocery, a tal extremo, que hace poco tiempo compró en Miami, una acreditada farmacia reingresándose a su profesión.

Los buenos exitos de Pedrito, ademas de sus propias condiciones y a la cooperación, entusiasta y amorosa de su esposa, Rita y de sus dos hijos Sixto y Ricardo, unidos solidamente al padre por quien sentían adoración.

Este feliz matrimonio se hizo querer, a intensidad, por la comunidad de Belle Glade y la muerte de Rubiales puso un simbolico crepón en cada hogar. Rubiales no tubo enemigos, sino, al contrario, fervorosos amigos para la ayuda firme y generosa.

Quise mucho a Pedrito. Nuestra amistad alcanzo el rango de la mayor intimidad. Mi pobre amigo sufrio los embates de una cruel dolencia, asistido dulcemente por Rita, su compañera insuperable. Aquel hogar, santificado por el amor y la ternura, donde todo era alegría, es ahora aun paramo sin plantas y sin sol, ayer una canción y hoy un requiem. Que Dios misericordioso de a la viuda y a los hijos y a toda la familia doliente resignada y entereza y conduzca a Pedrito a los paraísos celestiales.

Esos son nuestros anhelos y nuestras oraciones porque nuestro buen amigo que nos abandono muere con alma limpia y con corazón pleno de generosidades.

De el pudo, tambien decir San Agustín: "La modestia fue su mejor gala; la laboriosidad su dulce recreo; el hogar el centro de sus amores."

1974 Tax Statements on Way

Allen C. Clark, County Tax Collector, announces that the 1974 tax statements will be mailed prior to the end of October.

Each year, every effort is made to direct the statements to correct mailing addresses to afford taxpayers the advantage of discounts for early payment. It is the responsibility of the taxpayer to provide such correct address information, thereby avoiding delays and loss of discounts.

For clarification of procedures in making remittances, and in the interests of efficient service to the public, taxpayers are advised of the following excerpts from Florida Statutes:

"All property owners are held to know that taxes are due and payable annually. They are charged with the duty of ascertaining the amount of current and delinquent taxes and paying them before April 1 of the year following the year in which taxes are assessed. If the Tax Collector receives the payment of taxes by mail, he may use the postmark to determine the applicable discount authorized. The Tax Collector is not authorized to accept payment in an amount less than the amount specified on the tax bill or statement as being due and payable, either by mail or where the payment is made by the taxpayer or his agent."

Property Taxes may be paid at Room 205 County Courthouse, West Palm Beach or at any of the following Branch Offices: Tax Collector, Glades Office Building, 2876 State Road No. 15, Belle Glade, Florida.

Taxpayers are further requested to verify check payments as to amounts and proper signatures, thereby avoiding much confusion and delay in processing the remittances.

Sorority Advises Dolphins

Sunday, Oct. 20, members of the Mu Upsilon Beta Sigma Phi and husbands went to the Miami Dolphin, Kansas City Chiefs game.

The Oct. social was the loudest social this year with everyone giving free advice to quarterback Bob Griese.

With the Dolphins finally taking the nine to three lead in the last seconds of the ball game, everyone came home happy.

Following the game, members went to the Green Dolphin for dinner.

Dan Dexter won the pot for game score prediction.

Members and guests attending were: Carol and Mike Zumpf, Nancy and Larry Thompson, Rena and Franklin Shuttis, Rhonda and Dwayne Stokes, Davene and Donald Baily, Patsy and Vernon Vaisell, Mary and Dan Dexter and Mrs. Dexter's sister from Miami, Paul Oren, Don Fiehs, Aritha and Jim Keene and Robert and Charlene Reese of LeHigh Acres.

DR. CLAUDE ANDERSON ADDRESSES LA CHIC MESDAMES CLUB ...as the Governor's education coordinator took part in dinner-dance here Oct. 4.

Soiree Hears Anderson

Palm Beach County Judge Edward Rodgers served as the toastmaster during the first anniversary Soiree Dinner Dance sponsored by the La Chic Mesdames Social Club of Belle Glade on Friday night, Oct. 4, at the Holiday Inn of Belle Glade.

Mrs. Willie M. White, president of the City Association of Women's Clubs, brought the occasion, followed by Mrs. Barbara W. Kight, president of the National Baptist Junior Women's Convention, who brought greetings and recognized special guests. Mrs. Otis P. Williams, NAACP National Board member and past president of Florida NAACP introduced Dr. Claude Anderson, education coordinator for the Governor, the guest speaker.

Dr. Anderson outlined the new political, educational and economical thrust for Blacks who want to become involved. The tactics of demonstrating, burning, walking that walk, talking that talk and looking that look are out.

Improving political power, mind power, great power and love.

instead of only rapping about ways to cope are the new approaches. A standing ovation was given Dr. Anderson for his dynamic presentation.

Mrs. Ida A. Mizell, club president and administrator of Sunset Heights Nursing Home, presented the President's Distinguished Achievement Award to Mrs. Barbara W. Kight, state president of the Junior Women's Convention and newly elected president of the National Baptist Junior Women's Convention of America.

She has served as president of the Junior Women's Civic League, is newly elected president of the Lake Shore Elementary P.T.O., a member of Las Novias Society, NAACP a member of New Bethel Baptist Church and vice president of the La Chic Mesdames. She is a secretary and substitute teacher by profession.

Mrs. Gloria M. Darville, resource teacher of Palm Beach County Schools, announced the establishment of the Mizell-La Chic Nursing Scholarship. This scholarship will be given as a memorial of the late Dr. Von D. Mizell, and will be funded by Mrs. Ida Mizell matching all funds raised by the La Chic Mesdames.

The club plans to give two scholarships per year. One to a LPN student nurse and one to a registered nurse student in her senior year. The recipient must work in Belle Glade for at least one year after licensure.

Thompsons

Play Host

Oct. 15, was the date of Mu Upsilon's second regular meeting at the home of new member Nancy Thompson.

President Carol Zumpf opened the meeting with officers reporting.

Marsha Oren, Ways & Means Chairman, ask girls to get all money turned in for cook books as Nov. will begin a new project. Aretha Keene showed the Chapter the doll to be given away on Dec. 7 with a ticket drawing. The doll and wardrobe will be on display in Averill's gift shop, Ave. A, Belle Glade. Social Chairman Rana Shultz, gave out tickets for Sunday Miami Dolphin game. Service Chairman Sonia Oldham outlined her year for service for Chapter.

Sponsor Dot Averill, told the Chapter she had visited past sister Kathy Miller and her family on a recent vacation and that she sent her love.

Following the meeting, blueberry and cherry cheese cake was served to guests by hostess Nancy Thompson.

Miss CDS Named

Three-year old Mary Courtney Corbin was named Little Miss Christian Day School in a pageant sponsored recently by the school's senior class.

The 1974 Little Miss CDS is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Corbin of 148 S.E. Fifth St. North. She wore a floor length red and white gingham dress and said the person she loves the most is her older sister, Michal.

First runnerup was Christine Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Wall of 724 N.W. 16th St.; second runnerup was Kathy Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Butler of 1061 Wedgworth Road and third runnerup was Melissa Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Green of 118 Cypress Ave. in Pahokee.

Seniors Eddie Cunningham and Maria Torres welcomed the guests and narrated the event.

Betanzos

Rites Held

Funeral services for Nestor Rodriguez Betanzos, 48, an employee of Talisman Sugar Corp., were held Friday at the Iglesia Apostolica de Fe en Cristo Jesus in Pahokee with the Rev. Alberto Espasero of Pahokee officiating. Betanzos was born in Famulapam, Mexico and made his home at House 84 in Osceola Center. He had been an employee of Talisman for the past four years and was a member of the Iglesia Apostolica de la Fe en Cristo Jesus.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Luisa Rios Betanzos of Belle Glade; two sons, Joe and Nestor Betanzos Jr., both of Belle Glade and six daughters, Yolanda, Olga, Mary, and Evelia Betanzos of Belle Glade and Mrs. Angelita Victoria of Belle Glade and Mrs. Juanita Rivera of Mexico.

Funeral services were members of the family and burial took place in Fort Meade Cemetery. Mixson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

McDermott Assigned

Airman Errol C. McDermott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton McDermott of 314 Ravdin Ave., Pahokee, has been assigned to Chanute AFB, Ill., after completing Air Force basic training.

During his six weeks at the Air Training Command's Lackland Air Force Base, he studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

The airman has been assigned to the Technical Training Center at Chanute for specialized training in the aircraft equipment maintenance field.

I run eight different engines. NAPA covers them all.

On my place, we run engines from eight different manufacturers. And, it's nice to know that when one stops running, my local NAPA Jobber has the parts I need to get it going again. Chances are he has in stock what I need for all of them, not to mention a big variety of tools, paints and farm/ranch supplies. But, if he's ever out, he gets what I need overnight. That's one service that's hard to find anywhere else.

Your NAPA Jobber is a local independent businessman. Get to know

Karen's Korner

BY Karen
Hansford

Looks like Glades Day School really had a happy homecoming this year, what with bombarding the St. Edwards Pirates of Vero Beach with touchdowns right and left as they rushed for the first victory of the year in a 48-0 win over the hapless Pirates.

With the exception of the first time they laid their hands on the football, the Gators scored everytime they could get hold of it, which was quite often, as St. Edwards couldn't seem to get a hold on the ball whenever they managed to wrest it from the Gators. Statistics show that the Pirates had possession of the ball for only six minutes—now that's what I call domination.

Actually the score should've been a lot more, but seems the Gators had problems with the officials—more than with the Pirates—and three touchdowns were called back because of penalties against them.

I swear, if I didn't know better, those Pirates were intentionally losing the ball game. I don't know, maybe some Sly Gator fan slipped into St. Edwards' locker room and spread oil around so anything the players touched would make their hands greasy so they couldn't hold onto the ball.

Just kidding. Glades Day was really playing good ball out there. Now I know why they have only lost by a few points in the tough competition they've been playing. I mean, anyone would think with no wins tucked under their belts this team would be sorry—but it isn't. In fact it is one of the better teams around.

Good luck for the rest of the year.

Glades Central chalked up another victory this past Friday as they clobbered Suncoast with a total of 30 points to nilch for the Chargers.

And in the same situation as Glades Day, the score should have been at least 48 to 0 as they had three touchdowns called back. Sad thing about it was that everytime, Anthony Burger was involved it.

Twice he caught passes in the end zone which could have been touchdowns and he returned a punt for over 60 yards for another would-be touchdown, only to have them called back, the first two for illegal procedure against the Raiders, and the punt return had a clipping penalty tagged on it.

Sounds like a jinx doesn't it? The Chargers didn't help matters any when their quarterback was sacked for a loss and apparently one of his teammates thought the Raider kicker did it with unnecessary roughness, so he tried to even things. As a result, benches on both teams emptied as the players ran out on the field, some to help "fight it out" and others to try to break it up.

Guess some of the fans wanted a piece of the action too, as a few ran out on the field. They sure couldn't help any, though I guess they weren't smart enough to realize that.

Or perhaps they were some of the select few who might have heard about the halftime incident between one of the Suncoast coaches and a Raider coach and player.

Now that's what I call poor sportsmanship.

The Oakland A's did it again, winning the World Series three times in a row. They are the second team to do it—the New York Yankees being the only ones able to boast of having for five straight years.

I had faith in them—I knew they'd do it again, although it worried me some when I heard about how well the players were getting along between themselves and the coach—and-ahem—owner Charlie Finley. Imagine! Some of the players posed for a picture with the owner—and all of them grinning from ear to ear!

But my worries were groundless as it became known that a fight erupted between two players, and everything returned to normal.

Now if only the Miami Dolphins could get that third Super Bowl Championship!

Super Bad Raiders Deflate Suncoast

The Super Bad Glades Central Raiders put it all together against a scrappy but outclassed Suncoast team as they rolled to an easy 30-0 victory for their third suncoast west division victory.

The Raiders took the opening kick off and marched 58 yards in 7 plays to score. Senior quarterback Rigo Ruiz set up the touchdown with a 33 yard run when he kept the ball on the triple option. Four plays later, he kept the ball on a keeper play and raced 15 yards for the touchdown.

Junior linebacker David Kinlaw kicked the conversion and the Raiders had a 7-0 lead. After recovering a fumble on the Suncoast 34 yard line little Anthony Burger scored on a four-yard blast over left tackle and David Kinlaw converted to made it 14-0.

With seconds left in the first half, junior quarterback Johnnie Rutledge fired a 35-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Burger but the play was called back by an illegal procedure penalty.

Two plays later Rutledge spotted left end Michael Pringle in the end zone and hit him with a 14-yard touchdown pass. David Kinlaw's kick was good and the Raiders went to the dressing room at halftime with a 21-0 lead.

So effective was the Raider defense that the Suncoast Mustangs had only one first down in the first half. As the second half started, the Raider defense scored the fourth touchdown as Mustang quarterback Leon Smith's pass was deflected by the hard rush of David Jones into the hands of defensive end Cornelius Brown on the 15 yard line and he raced into the end zone for the score.

David Kinlaw converted on his fourth straight extra point and the Raiders had a 28-0 lead and their fourth victory of the year against one tie.

So effective was the Raider defense that Suncoast had only 18 yards net rushing in 13 carries while they completed two passes good for 12 yards. The rush of the Raider defense was the best of the year and they recovered three fumbles plus intercepting the touchdown pass.

Cornelius Brown, David Jones, Calvin Willis, Ernest Jackson and Hudall Collie, the front five of the Raiders, were near perfect.

The linebackers Bruce Rimes, David Kinlaw, Charles Small and Michael Washington played errorless football as well as the secondary composed of Willie Wright, T. J. Salter, Bernard Hammond and Anthony Parrish who have only given up three completed passes in the last two games.

Offensively it was a good night as all eight backs ran well. Rigo Ruiz was the leading rusher with 51 yards in 5 carries. He was followed by Alexander Brown who had 50 yards in 9 carries and Howard Moses who rushed for 33 yards in 9 carries. Anthony Burger rushed for 20 yards in 4 carries and scored one touchdown.

But Anthony had three touchdowns called back. He caught a 30-yard touchdown pass from Rigo Ruiz in the first quarter for a touchdown that did not count. He caught a 35

SUPER BAD RAIDER DEFENSE CLOSES IN ON HELPLESS OPPONENT
...Raiders completely dominated game over Suncoast Chargers winning 30-0 yarder from Johnnie Rutledge that was called back then in the third quarter he had a 65 yard punt return call back for clipping.

Anthony was selected as the Offensive Back of the Week. The defensive player of the week was Cornelius Brown for his touchdown and two sacks of the quarterback.

Calvin Willis, David Kinlaw, David Jones and Bruce Rimes all had four tackles each to lead the team in that department.

Dick Sweet was Sticker of the Week for his hit of a Suncoast ball carrier on the kick off after the Raider second touchdown.

Offensively the whole line blocked well this week. Michael Pringle, Hudall Collie, Davey Locke, Clark Lloyd, Allen Mies, Charles Ford, Lester Finney and Dick Sweet.

It was the best line execution of the year for the young improving line.

The Raiders will host the Key West Conchs this Friday night. The Conchs are 2-2-2 over the year with a big 14-6 win over Miami Columbus last Friday night.

The Key West club throws the football over 30 times per game so the Raider defense will be a real test this Friday night.

It will be the battle of two 5'8" quarterbacks as Key West's Brad Major who has passed for 7 touchdowns so far this season, will be matched by the Raiders 5'8" mighty mite Rigo Ruiz who has passed for four touchdowns.

So get out and see if the Super Bad Raider defense can keep their string of 18 straight quarters of shut-out football intact. Game time is 8 p.m.

GATORS GET UNTRACKED, 48-0 FOR HOMECOMING

The Belle Glade Herald, October 24, 1974, 7A

THIS NO. 32 MET WITH GREAT SUCCESS FOR GATORS
...Bill Thompson scored three touchdowns in Homecoming rout

It was long enough coming but when coach Dave Magnuson's Glades School Gators finally racked up their win of the season, they made it impressive and at a time it counted.

Magnuson said the Gators have been working up to their 48-0 rout of St. Edwards of Vero Beach all season and Friday was when they put it all together.

And what they put together for their homecoming game was a coffin for St. Edwards' Pirates, a coffin sealed by an out-for-blood defense and the hammering blows of a near-perfect offensive line clearing the way for the punishing running of Bill Thompson.

Homecoming Queen Elena Serra and her court of Celia Battle and Suzanne Hooks coolly sat on the sideline to watch the dismemberment of the Pirates.

And, ridiculous as it may sound, the 48-0 score wasn't indicative of the way things were.

If the Gator's touchdowns which were called back had been recorded and one-point conversions had been made on each touchdown scored, they would have walked away with a 77-0 victory.

Seven touchdowns were recorded and three were called back on penalties. Had the game been close, the Gator's necessity to run or pass for two-point conversions could have been costly.

Magnuson said the Gators haven't attempted to kick for points-after-touchdowns all year because they simply haven't had a center the coaches felt could get the ball back to the place-kick holder.

This meant conversions were successful on only three of the seven touchdowns.

Glades Day only managed to make 11 first downs, normally a not-too-impressive figure, but "we managed to score so often, we didn't need that many first downs," Magnuson said.

He said the Pirates were only able to keep the ball for a total of six minutes during the 48 minute game and the Gator offense only had the ball once when they didn't score with it. They punted that time.

Magnuson said his team drove for a total of 280 yards on the ground and lofted the ball for 55 yards in the air. But one statistic Magnuson didn't seem too happy about was the 105 yards in penalties Glades Day earned.

"You can expect to get a lot of penalties," he said, "when you're playing a team that is much weaker than you are."

He said the Pirates, who had trouble even getting to the game when their bus broke down in Stuart, only managed to field 17 players, and their very weakness caused a change in the Gator game plan.

"We thought we'd come out throwing the ball," Magnuson said, "but our offensive line was just blowing them away for 10 and 12 yards at a clip so we didn't need the pass. Then too, we wanted to salt the game away early and didn't want to make any mistakes."

The scoring was led by Bill Thompson, who power running broke tackles all day. He scored the Gators' first TD with a 27-yard run on the Gators' first possession and also racked up points on a two-yard run.

Thompson also led the Gator rushing attack with a total of 93 yards, followed by Keith Williams and Julio Sanchez with 65 yards each. Howard Harris, a freshman, followed with 35 yards in three carries.

Williams scored the Gators' second touchdown on a 10 yard plunge. Mitch Crissman scored on a one-yard plunge. Carlos Latour galloped in on a 20 yard run and Bill Dupere picked up a Pirate punt and ran in the last score of the day from 65 yards out.

"Some of our coaches," Magnuson said, "were hoping Dupere wouldn't score. They wanted a few more of our third string players to have a chance to play."

Freshman Dick Crockett, Magnuson said, picked up two points on a conversion play...his first play ever.

Two other conversion attempts were successful when Mitch Crissman scored on a run and George Echave to Danny Duda pass scored the final two points.

When it came to outstanding performances, Magnuson said he had named Thompson Offensive Player of the Week and Tommy Wilkenson Defensive Player of the Week.

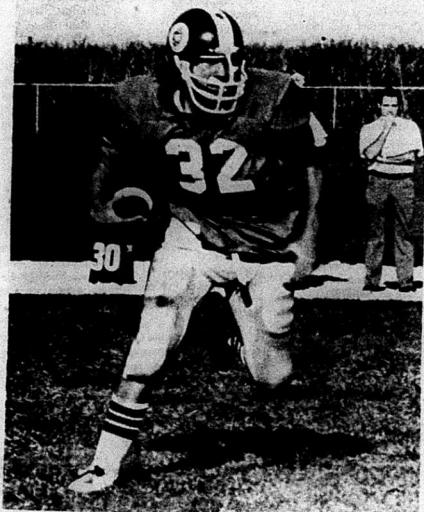

He said his entire offensive line deserved credit for the game they played. "You don't get that kind of yardage and solving without some blocking going on up front."

Magnuson said he also hoped he had solved his center problem with the introduction of freshman Eddie Bravo. He said he believes Bravo can be taught to hike the ball and the Gators will now be able to kick single-point PAT's in the future.

"We've been so busy with other things," he said, "we simply haven't had time to teach anyone how to center the ball."

Other players who had outstanding performances recorded were Jeff Royal, George Cano, Mike Pmuel, Charles Mathews and Kenny Buckner.

Magnuson said the Gators face Coral Shores in another away game Saturday. He said the Coral Shores team is considerably heavier than the Gators but they've lost their last three games.

What does the future hold for metrization in the United States?

Andrews says that whatever else it does, Congress should establish some guidelines to eliminate unnecessary confusion when the conversion does come.

"Companies that are converting to the metric system now are arbitrarily rounding off values, such as the exact number of grams per pound," he says. "Since there has been no universal agreement on various values, we could have serious variations unless mutually agreeable equivalents are established."

And what of pending legislation in Congress? According to Congressman Don Fuqua, who, with Congressman Lou Frey and Bill Gunter are co-sponsors with numerous others of HR 11058 providing for the conversion to the metric system, there seems little chance of any action being taken this year.

The bill was introduced October 18, 1973 and referred to the Committee on Science and Astronautics. It was subjected to some legislative maneuvering and came to a House vote on May 7 only to be defeated 153-240.

TAKE A FLORIDA ORANGE JUICE BREAK

Glades Farmers to Join Others to 'Speak Minds'

Florida farmers will speak their minds on issues such as inflation and environmental protection at the Florida Farm Bureau Federation's (FFBF) 33rd annual convention in Daytona Beach, October 27-29.

"Grassroots" delegates from all over the state will also address themselves to resolutions on other local, state and national issues including land use planning and development, taxation, water crises, education and food prices.

Resolutions adopted by the voting delegates will become policies to guide the big 60,600 member organization through 1975.

With a theme of "On the Go, on the Grow," the convention, to be headquartered in the Daytona Plaza Hotel, is expected to attract 1,000 or more.

Prominent guests and speakers for the three-day affair will include gubernatorial and other state and local candidates, Agriculture Commissioner Doyle Conner, National Resources Director Harmon Shields and members of the State Legislature.

Headlining entertainment will be country-western singer Mel Tillis and rising young Florida star Chris Bellotto of Lakeland, who launched her career from a talent find contest at the FFBF convention two years ago.

In addition to the talent find contest, the convention will also be the site for the crowning of one of a host of Florida rural beauties as Miss Florida Agriculture for 1975. Debra Roberts of Jefferson County is the current reigning queen.

Kick-off of the convention at Sunday noon, October 27, will be luncheons and business sessions for the Farm Bureau women's and young farmers groups, followed by the talent contest, a Vespers service, awards presentations and the Miss Florida Agriculture contest.

Monday morning's general session will feature FFBF President Walter J. Kautz' annual address, and an address by Conner. Also appearing will be leaders of various Florida agricultural industry groups.

Legislative reports will be heard from State Senator Phil Lewis and State Representative Wayne Mixson, chairman of Senate and House Agriculture Committees, respectively.

Awards will be presented to outstanding legislators and a Distinguished Service Award. Farm Bureau's most prestigious honor, will go to one or more outstanding Farm Bureau members.

Conferences on natural resources and the Occupational Health and Safety Act (OSHA) are slated for Monday afternoon.

These will feature addresses by Shields and FFBF Safety Director Ken Gilliam, respectively.

Monday evening will feature a barbecue dinner and the Tillis show.

Tuesday will bring election of officers and the general delegate session where policy recommendations will be adopted or rejected.

Proposed resolutions include one opposing state takeover of private lands adjacent to south Florida's Big Cypress Swamp as a buffer zone, another calling for cooperation with government agencies and others in seeking methods and funds for construction and proper labor housing and proper maintenance of existing housing, and another supporting research that would "give the agriculturalist the necessary knowledge to more efficiently utilize his nature resources and minimize any environmental degradation he may be responsible for."

"These resolutions spotlight some of the problems farmers are facing," said Kautz.

Students will go to Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami for one day to observe advanced diagnostic testing of the cardiac patient.

Miss Donna Harden, R.N. and Mrs. Susan Rose, R.N., will be the instructors.

Six Palm Beach Junior College credit hours will be awarded to those who successfully complete the course and have a high school diploma or equivalent.

This is the second of four coronary care courses to be offered in the 1974-75 year. Other courses to be held include one-week symposiums on acute respiratory care, medical intensive care, surgical intensive care and coronary care for the L.P.N., and two-day workshops on advanced electrocardiography and clinical assessment and pharmacology.

Heading up the problems though is runaway inflation, Kautz added.

Late last month, the FFBF president, at the time of President Ford's economic summit conference, urged farmers to be prepared to tighten their belts and take their share of cuts in federal spending as one measure to fight inflation.

"What we have to do-farmers and ranchers and all other segments of society-is first fact up to the fact that reduction in federal spending is going to hurt at first. Then, we must exert enough willpower to stand the pain," said Kautz.

Weeds a Pressing Problem

A University of Florida scientist is working on a grant from the Florida Department of Natural Resources to develop a harvester for aquatic plants. This harvester will be used in conjunction with an already perfected water press designed to rid inland waterways of troublesome aquatic plants in tropical areas such as Florida.

Asia and Latin America. Dr. Larry O. Bagnall, agricultural engineer and associate professor for the Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences, developed and perfected a waterhyacinth press which is currently in use in both Bangladesh and Guyana (South America). Bagnall and other UF scientists are developing a process by which these troublesome weeds can be converted into feed for cattle. When this process is perfected sometime this fall, it will be a double victory-eliminating a nuisance and creating something productive from it.

Waterhyacinths, a very common type of water weed, can be harvested, pressed and converted into feed for cattle in a very efficient manner. This provides a cheaper, but equally nutritious, feed for cattle while clearing waterways of weeds.

Bagnall and his research team have made this possible not only for Florida, but for all other countries with aquatic weed problems.

These presses designed by Bagnall were purchased from UF's College of Agriculture by the State Department for distribution as part of the United States Program for International Development. This pressing process causes a great reduction in weight and yields juice nutrients which are excellent for feeds due to their high protein content.

Bagnall said, "Pressing is very important since aquatic plants contain more than 90 percent water. To transport ten tons of waterhyacinths you would be carrying more than nine tons of useless water."

As most aquatic plants contain this much water, pressing is an absolute must in order to transport them for conversion to cattle feed.

Bagnall's press is one of the most efficient for the management of aquatic plants. It is very light (about 500 pounds) and is simply designed for easy production and maintenance.

Management of aquatic weeds in tropical countries is a critical issue. An overabundance of these weeds can render rivers virtually unnavigable, cause severe flooding which destroys crops and ruins the land for further production and creates public health hazards by creating a breeding ground for harmful insects. Researchers at IFAS are assisting the United States Agency for International Development in providing all nations with a remedy for this problem.

The National Academy of Science of the United States took part in a workshop in aquatic weed management and utilization in Georgetown, Guyana last spring. Bagnall, who was one of the panelists, demonstrated his water press for the Latin American scientists and many political dignitaries on hand for the conference. The purpose of the workshop was to share scientific knowledge about aquatic weeds with scientists and agriculturists from all countries.

This workshop created great interest in Bagnall's work. Letters from interested agriculturists are coming into the Agriculture Department at UF from countries all over the world. This is understandable since the product is a good one-one cure for several problems.

WITCH WATCH
An informed sorceress has reported seeing a mysterious M.F.O. (that's a magical flying object), in the sunny skies of Florida. In keeping with the Halloween tradition of "trick or treat," this trick photography is a treat to the beholder and a wizard opportunity for Sunken Gardens' resident witch, Debbie Sebel, to remind evening motorists to watch out for mini-ghosts and goblins. Besides, it's a great way for the spellbinding St. Pete coed to get her exorcise.

Rally Round the Flags, Girls

Ready to run the idea up the flag and see who salutes are these members of the Christian Day School's drill team who get their first workout Friday when the Crusaders meet King's Academy in West Palm Beach. The football game will be the first occasion the drill team has performed for the public.

Two Principals Named

The Palm Beach School Board was supposed to take action Wednesday night to appoint principals to two Glades-area elementary schools according to West Area Administrator James Maynor. The action was necessitated by the death of Mrs. Lois Ruff, principal of Belle Glade Elementary School and involved the appointment of Harry Davis, principal of South Bay Elementary to Mrs. Ruff's old position.

To fill Davis' slot in South Bay, Maynor said School Superintendent Joseph Carroll is recommending Ray Carter, former principal of Glades Central who is now working with the county-wide migrant education program.

The two appointments were to become effective today pending approval of the board meeting Wednesday night.

Mrs. Ruff had been a part of the Palm Beach County School System for 24 years before her death two weeks ago. She had been ill for some time. Carter was appointed principal of Glades Central High School in 1971, a school board move resulting in a lawsuit against the board and the eventual placing by court order of Charles McCurdy as principal of the local high school.

Carter announced his resignation from the Glades Central post in May, citing poor health and too much strain brought on by the high school job.

He asked at that time for the principalship of a small elementary school if and when it became available and Maynor said this week this was why he was named to South Bay post. "This was part of the original agreement," Maynor said, explaining the two moves were opted for instead of simply placing Carter at Belle Glade Elementary because the Belle Glade school has three times the student enrollment of the South Bay school.

Belle Glade Elementary has a total school enrollment of approximately 600 while South Bay Elementary has some 200 students.

Maynor said he recommended the two transfers and Carroll is recommending them to the board.

Hercules Girl Scouts Plan Special Program

Members of the Hercules Girl Scout Neighborhood is planning a special community program in honor of Juliette Gordon Low, the founder of girl scouting.

The program begins at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday Oct. 19 at the Glades Central High School Annex Cafeteria.

Mrs. Ollice Davis, one of the Neighborhood leaders, said approximately 300 girls from 12 troops will be taking part in the program, featuring songs, dances and a variety of other numbers from other lands around the world.

Neighborhood Chairman Mrs. Annie Pearl Hill said girl scout troops around the world will be honoring their founder in their own way.

Mrs. Hill said new leaders are needed to work with the girls and asked anyone interested to attend the next scheduled leaders' meeting at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 12 at the Glades Central Annex Cafeteria.

Ballots

Ready
Absentee ballots for the Nov. 5 general election are now available for voters who won't be able to get to the polls that day according to Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections Jackie Winchester.

Glades residents wishing to obtain the ballots may pick them up at the Glades Office Building or by writing for them.

Canning Class Coming

Would-be home food canners can get pointers on how it's done in a special session on "Food Conservation Through Preservation" at 9:30 a.m. Nov. 20 at the Glades Office Building auditorium.

Mrs. Beverly Harrington, a Palm Beach County Extension Home Economics Agent, will be the speaker at the session and a free set of materials will be given those in attendance.

The workshop is partially inspired by a U.S. Department of Agriculture report that six million more families in America have gardens this year than last year.

"Preserving food at home is a source of satisfaction," Mrs. Harrington said, "and also provides the family with nutritious food at a reasonable price."

Mail it the Right Way

Putting out mail in the right way are members of the Children's Home Auxiliary and other volunteers as United Way Glades Chairman Don Migliore collects requests for donations which will be mailed out in the near future. Handing Migliore the envelopes are Mrs. Carol Zumpf, Mrs. Larry Thompson, Mrs. Don Fiehs, Mrs. Glenn Bair and Mrs. William Schoehfeld.

'No More Attorneys'

Jack Eckerd Here

Republican U.S. Senate candidate, Jack Eckerd told a Glades Republican Club dinner meeting Friday night that it was about time Florida sent somebody besides an attorney to the U.S. Senate.

Eckerd pointed out that the last non-attorney sent to the Senate from Florida was in 1899. He then said, "my opponent is an attorney" ignoring in his address the third party candidacy of Belle Glade physician John Grady. On two other occasions during his speech he also spoke of "my opponent."

After he had finished speaking, Eckerd was asked if he did not recognize the third party American Party challenge of Grady.

"Well, the polls show he doesn't have a chance," replied Eckerd.

When he was reminded that the polls showed Grady didn't have a chance to get 105,000 certified signatures on a petition (he got over 130,000 which allowed the American Party to get on the ballot in Florida) Eckerd replied:

"Well, yes, I certainly do recognize Dr. Grady as a viable third party candidate and I didn't mean to ignore him in my speech."

Eckerd pinpointed inflation as the no. 1 problem he would try to lick if he were sent to Washington. He said in all his travels around Florida he had found this the one problem bothering most people.

"You might ask what one person could do about inflation," said Eckerd. "All I can tell you is that somebody isn't in communication with someone, or the politician just doesn't hear."

"Over the past 10 years the government has averaged spending $20 billion more than taxed. The national debt is right at half a trillion dollars. "President Ford's proposed five per cent tax surcharge is a monumental ripoff. All it will do is give them more money to throw away and accomplish nothing."

Eckerd said it was time to tell the rest of the world we can no longer afford to feed and cloth it.

"We have to take a firmer stand," said Eckerd. "Instead of selling the Russians wheat at below market prices we should have bargained with them for their natural gas. All the wheat deal did was raise the price of bread in the United States."

Godfather

To Visit

The Mafia in Belle Glade? Well, yes, but only on the silver screen.

The film, "The Godfather," which won several academy awards, is being shown free of charge at 3:30 p.m. today as one of a series of films at Palm Beach Junior College Glades.

Counselor Freddie Harrell said the film will be shown in Room Four at the center in the armory and the public is invited until seating capacity is reached.

PBJC Renames

The Palm Beach Junior or College Glades Center picked up a new name last week and a new fee schedule will go into effect in the fall followin board of trustees action.

The new name will be Palm Beach Junior College Glades and trustees have eliminated flat-rate fees for full-time students, charging $11 per credit hour for Florida students and $22 per hour for out-of-state students.

The new fee schedule means students taking fewer than 10 credit hours will be paying less for their education but full-time students will be paying more.

Under the present setup, part time students pay $12 per hour and full time students pay a flat rate of $129.50. A full time student is any student taking more than 12 credit hours of courses.

Dr. Harold C. Manor, PBJC president, estimated the new fee schedule would provide as much as $20,000 less per year than the present schedule.

Dr. Manor estimated the $1 of the $11 per hour fee which will be used for student activities would generate approximately $142,000 instead of the current $152,000.

The name change of the Glades unit was only one of four new names suggested by board chairman Edward Eisey.

Women's Fellowship to Host Rally

The Women's Missionary Prayer Fellowship of Belle Glade Alliance Church is hosting a Missionary Rally Oct. 29 at 10:30 a.m. at the church at 425 E. Canal St. N. The theme is "Broadcasting His Story."

The Belle Glade Alliance Church is affiliated with the Christian and Missionary Alliance, an evangelistic movement presenting the gospel in 213 languages and dialects in over 40 foreign countries. Mrs. Shirley Overmeyer, missionary to Colombia, will be the featured attraction at this fellowship.

Coffee will be served at 10 a.m. at the church. The Morning service will begin at 10:30 a.m. and the afternoon service at 1:15 p.m. A nursery will be provided for children.

The ladies of the Alliance Church extend a welcome to attend these services and to visualize what it means to be a foreign missionary. The Church will provide a beverage and dessert at noon if you are desirous in staying for the noon luncheon.

There is no cost or obligation in attending this rally which is geared specifically in up-lifting the Lord Jesus Christ in all His glory and magnificent sovereignty.

The Parson Pontificates

Preachers and policemen have something in common. The police try to keep people from doing wrong; the preacher tries to get them to do right. If the police could accomplish their task, we would have a safer society in which to live. If the preachers could accomplish their task, we wouldn't need the police. As it is, there isn't too much evidence of success in either case. I wonder why. Some of us preachers and policemen aren't all we should be, but then, we don't get much support from the people, either. (See St. Luke 24:25; James 1:22-25)

Preview to be Shown

A special preview of the Billy Graham film, TIME TO RUN, will be presented at the Jameson Hall of the Community United Methodist Church. Sunday School teachers, youth workers and church leaders are invited to attend.

The public showing of the film will be Nov. 20, 21, 22, 23, at the Glades Central High School gymnasium, sponsored by the Belle Glade Ministerial Association.

THREE SPIRIT, a group of thirty youth from the Trinity United Methodist Church in Palm Beach Gardens, presented a concert of sacred music at the Community United Methodist Church last Sunday night. This song and witness group met with the local Methodist youth for a time of fellowship and sharing before the evening service. Youth coordinators Cary and Mary Leigh Wall arranged the program and provided for a snack supper for about fifty young people.

Services Held for Rev. Ringland

Funeral services were held Saturday for the Rev. Edmund Myers Ringland, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church, at the church with a bishop and two rectors of the church presiding.

Father Ringland, aged 60 years, died at 7 a.m. Oct. 16 in Glades General Hospital following a short illness.

Officiating at his services were the Right Rev. James L. Duncan, Bishop of Southeast Florida; the Very Rev. James E. Rasmick of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Tequesta and the Rev. Stephen H. Smith, rector of St. Christophers.

Father Ringland was born Mar. 3, 1914 in Boone, Iowa. He made his home at 208 N.W. Ave. H. He was a member of the Belle Glade Ministerial Assoc., a 32nd degree Mason of Masonic Lodge in Fon-du-Lac, Wis.

He was also rector of the Church of the Holy Nativity in Pahokee since 1971. Fr. Ringland was formerly dean of the Cathedral School of St. Paul in Springfield, Ill. and also served as dean of the Cathedral in the diocese of Lord du Lac, Wis. He served as rector of St. Johns Church in Decatur, Ill. for 10 years.

He was graduated from Marshalltown, Iowa High School and received his bachelor of arts degree from Cornell College in Mount Vernon, Iowa, his bachelor of sacred theology from Seabury-Western Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill.

In 1960, Cornell conferred a Doctor of Divinity degree in recognition of Father Ringland's contribution to the church in the Midwest. He was a member of the communications committee of the Diocese of Southeast Florida.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Betty Ann Ringland of Belle Glade; three sons, Timothy Oblesky of Belle Glade, J. Ringland of Bossier City, La. and David Ringland of Decatur, Ill.; a daughter, Mrs. Beverly Rehard of Beloit, Wis.; two brothers, Gilbert Ringland of Middletown, Cal. and George Ringland of Arroyo Grande, Cal. and seven grandchildren.

Pallbearers were the vestment men of the church: Gene Reed, James Mayner, Lyons Williams, Eddie Jones, Hunter Lathan, John Hatch, Floyd Collingsworth, Fred Rogers, Edward McGee, Mrs. J. Knight, Mrs. Ruth Kahle and Mrs. Beth Wilkinson. Burial was in Hillcrest Memorial Park Cemetery in West Palm Beach. Mixson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Belief Helps You Keep Your Balance

Psychologists agree that most of us walk a tight rope in today's tense world. Thin lines separate the abnormal, the normal and the subnormal. And sometimes the lines are stretched too thin to see.

Most of us keep our feet and our heads most of the time. But, on occasions, some of us fall into depths of despair and "don't care."

Our mental centers are full of folks who have lost their identity and their ability to communicate. Today, about one-third of these people are the young, 21 years of age or younger.

Fortunately, now our mental centers are staffed with the young dedicated men and women, trained to cope with the problems of youth. One example: Chaplain Bob Morris of the Winter Haven Hospital Community Mental Health Center, in Florida.

One great force that we use to help people regain their balance is belief," Bob Morris says. "Belief in God helps people see themselves as persons, and not as machines in this mechanical age."

The basic principles of democracy... equal opportunity for all... play a vital role in helping people realize their own worth, according to Chaplain Morris. Where people participate and share, they learn to care.

"Belief in other people is really what life is all about," Morris says. "Getting along with people, learning to love them... and more important, letting them love you, makes the difference between loneliness and happiness."

Finally, the crowning reward of all belief is belief in yourself as you reflect God's image on Earth. Confidence to try gives you the ability to cope on any tight-rope.

You'll feel the balance of belief at your place of worship this week.

Insurance Corner

by Milton Carpenter

ARE YOU WASTING MONEY?

It is said that the most common way of balancing the family budget is by cutting down deposits to the savings account. Another, and more practical way, is to make sure you have the right kind and right amount of protection for your home and car. Otherwise, you may be wasting your money on policies that give you too little protection; or be paying for more protection than you really need.

This is where the professional advice of an independent agent can often save you plenty in premium dollars - and future regrets. Because we are the independent representative of several insurance companies, we can pick the exact coverage that is best for you.

Car and home insurance is one of the most valuable forms of protection you can buy. If you've got the right kind and the right amount. It will cost you nothing to consult us about your present and future needs. You work hard for your money - why not make your money work hard for you?

West Area Volunteers Hold Meeting

The West Area Mini V.U.E. (Volunteers Upholding Education) Committee for the 1974-75 school term, was held Sept. 20 in the Lake Shore Junior High Library Reserve Reading Room, with Mrs. Elizabeth Bias, General West Area Supervisor in charge of "Getting Acquainted." Mrs. Vanda Williamson, Palm Beach County Project V.U.E. Coordinator, summarized last year's program and led the discussion for ways of work for this school term.

A slide-tape presentation (available for loan to civic and interest groups) was shown by Mrs. Annie Pearl Hill, West Area Resource Teacher, entitled, "Volunteers Upholding Education."

The presentation related the need for more volunteer assistance in the classrooms of our West Area schools and schools of Palm Beach County, to free teachers to work in a concentrated manner with students and give them more individualized attention for a few hours each day.

Mrs. Gloria Darville, West Area Migrant Education Resource Teacher is the 1974-1975 West Area Mini V.U.E. chairman. Interested persons and civic groups are invited to attend the next scheduled meeting.

"Get Back To School With The Students!!!" You are needed, share your love, concern and interest in children. For information, call Mrs. Gloria Darville 996-7264 or 996-7907 or the West Area School Board, Mr. Walter Loeck's Office 996-7017.

The following persons were in attendance: Rev. Joseph Smith, Rev. Leon Cambell, Attorney Thomas Montgomey, Mrs. Louise Taylor, Mrs. Shirley Davis, Mrs. Ed Lucy Baines, Mrs. Eleanor Wolf, Mrs. M.M. Robinson, Mr. Hawkins, Mr. Gene Williams, William Howard, Mrs. Naomi Mrs. Irene Clay.

Mental Health Benefits from Show

A gala luncheon-fashion show will be held at the Beach Club in Palm Beach on Oct. 26 to benefit the Community Mental Health Center of Palm Beach County.

A newly formed organization of 35 determined women, the women's auxiliary of the Home Builders and Contractors Association of Palm Beach County, headed by Mrs. Henry Bogatin, Sr., considered a host of possibilities as to how best to exercise their civic concern by donating both time and effort toward a good cause.

They selected the Community Mental Health Center, which is desperately seeking more than $1 million to help erect a critically needed new facility to the existing center at 1041 45th Street, West Palm Beach.

The women believe Mrs. Vivian Rubinger, CMHC Founder, did an amazing job beginning the center four years ago, and recognize the existing desperate need for funds.

As a result, the gala Modeling and Fashion Show Luncheon featuring European Modeling and Fashions by ALBERT ORIGINALS of Ft. Lauderdale, has been scheduled for Oct. 26, and the public is invited to support it generously.

Tickets are $10 inclusive. There will be door prizes. All administrative costs for the luncheon are being underwritten, and the new women's auxiliary will be able to contribute all monies derived from the luncheon, except the meal cost itself, to Community Mental Health.

Mrs. John Knippel is General Chairman for the event; co-chairman is Mrs. Thomas Myers. A good number to reach Mrs. Knippel is 622-6225 and she hopes her phone will ring constantly with ticket requests.

Gainous Completes Training

Airman Herman E. Gainous, son of Mrs. Geneva Gainous of 5388 W. 11th St., Belle Glade, has completed Air Force basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

During his six weeks' training, he studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations. The airman is remaining at the Air Training Command base for specialized training in the security police field.

"This will remain the land of the free only so long as it is the home of the brave." —Eleanor Davis

Let's honor the Veterans of the Armed Forces of the United States of America, who have given so much to insure that we remain the land of the free. Some of them have given their lives, can we give them less than our total support?

City Commission to Provide Relief

Residents along Southwest Avenue E were promised relief Monday night when the Belle Glade City Commission moved to buy and install pipe under driveways disrupted for several months by road construction.

A number of residents of the area were at the commission meeting to ask why it was taking so long for construction of the four-laning of Southwest Avenue E between Lake Shore Junior High School and SR715 to be completed.

City Manager William Mallory said the primary problem is the amount of rain the area has received for the past several months and drainage problems.

Mallory said construction has been stalled and will be stalled until the drainage problems are licked because if the contractors should attempt to pour paving over wet ground, the pavement would last no time before breaking up.

Commission Tom Altman moved, and the commission approved a plan whereby the city would buy pipe and install it under driveways of residents along the route of construction to at least allow them to get onto their property.

Another group of residents appearing before the commission received less definite promise of help but, the commission agreed to do what it can to get a bicycle-pedestrian path along Airport Road from Main Street to Northeast 27th.

The major problem, according to Altman, who worked on the proposed path as a city employee before being elected to office, is that while the county has agreed to work with the city on the path, it has undisclosed plans for Airport Road.

"I don't think the county knows," Altman said, what the plans are but said he had been told the county would not allow construction of the pathway between the road and either of the two drainage ditches flanking it.

The petitioners, led by Mrs. Jackie Pitts, said they felt the best location for the path would be between the road and the ditch on the south side and the next best would be between the road and the north-side ditch.

The next two alternatives offered by Mrs. Pitts were between either of the two ditches and the "private property lines beyond but Altman said there isn't enough room in either of these places.

The last alternative mentioned would be to place the path on the south side of the entire housing development. Mallory was instructed to check this possibility and proceed with plans for the path between Main Street and 16th Street.

In other action the commission:

...Agreed to a suggestion by Altman that Florida Department of Transportation District IV Engineer Ben Simpson be requested to meet with the commissioners "on site" to discuss SR715 between SR715 and the city marina.

...That road isn't bad," Altman said. "It's dangerous and I think we ought to request whoever is in charge to meet with us on site and explain why we have to have dangerous conditions on a state road."

...Followed City Attorney John Baker's advice that the city enter into no contracts with the DOT or anyone else "in perpetuity."

...Baker said the DOT has attempted to get the city to agree to two contracts, one to provide signalization maintenance on SR80 and the other to maintain street lights, which would last forever, with no escape clause for either party.

...Finally, City Manager William Mallory told the commission Jerry Roberts, who has filed suit against the city because of the results of the city election, had asked permission for his campaign manager, Nathaniel Edwards, to speak to the commission on election procedures.

Mallory said he told Roberts the commission wouldn't discuss the matter.

Mallory and Baker told the commission they had attempted several times Monday to contact Roberts at Florida Rural Legal Services to advise him Edwards could appear before the commission but said they hadn't been able to reach Roberts.

Mallory brought the matter up during the final part of the meeting, saying he felt the commission should be aware of it. Roberts had been at the meeting earlier but had left before the discussion.

South Bay Adopts New Tax Rate

The South Bay City Commission decided during special session Tuesday night to adopt a property tax rate of 9.596 mills instead of the 7.256 mills certified by the Palm Beach County Tax Assessor.

The millage would thus be the same as that imposed last year and will yield a total of $87,993.64 for the 1974-75 fiscal year; $22,997.99 higher than the $64,995.65 in property taxes collected for the city last year.

The commission adopted the millage rate only after already accepting the city's budget in another special session. The total budget for the coming year is $827,004.94, including the general fund, the water fund and the sewer fund.

City Clerk Virginia Walker said the city could adopt the millage rate during the first public hearing but if they didn't accept it Tuesday night, they could accept it next Tuesday.

In a aside, Fire Commissioner Woodrow "Woody" O'Neal reported the city has received several fire hydrants and installation was to have begun Wednesday morning.

He said he had already notified Wilburn Finley of the city volunteer fire department, who said four weeks ago he was acting as a spokesman for city firemen in demanding more fire hydrants be installed around the city.

Why Lawyers?

by Jerome Turk and Edward Walsh

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26, 1774—The first continental Congress adjourned today. And tonight, after a long final session, most of the delegates are milling cuff-to-sleeve here in City Tavern at a farewell party.

Their mood is festive. Their toasts are rousing. After six long, hard weeks of wrangling, conferring and debating, most of the emotional heat has cooled into the giddiness of good fellowship.

The delegates now understand each other. The air is clear, at least figuratively. And that's quite an achievement, considering that this Congress was made up of 30 lawyers or jurists, three officeholders, nine planters, nine merchants, three millers, one surveyor and one carpenter. They hailed from 12 colonies—all Georgia with most never having met before.

"This Congress has been the birthplace of American statesmen," enthused John Adams, holding his glass on high and forgetting his testy impatience with so many of his fellows in past sessions.

"How is it," my gregarious colleague Turk asked jovially of Adams, "that there are so many lawyers among the delegates? Matter of fact, why are there so many lawyers in the colonies today?"

Adams, himself a lawyer, chuckled with delight and then raised a hand so that greater attention would be brought to his reply: "I heard the perfect answer to that from a Philadelphia lawyer." With glass, he rected this bit of doggerel:

"You ask why lawyers so much are increased. The most of the country already are fleeced; The reason I'm sure is most strikingly plain—The sheep are oft sheared yet the wool grows again."

While conviviality crowns the closing of Congress tonight, this has been an extraordinary day. Attempting to woo French Canada to their cause, the delegates debated and approved an address to the people of Quebec. In almost the same breath, they signed a conciliatory petition to King George. But after all is said and done (and it has been), the most significant action taken by this Congress may have been the formation of the Continental Association. To be enforced by town, city and county "watchdog" committees, the Association bans British imports starting Dec. 1 and prohibits exports starting next year.

Some delegates believe that the petition to the king will initiate a redress of grievances. Col. George Washington has little faith in further petitions, believing that America's best chance lies in a strict trade embargo. Patrick Henry (who has already departed for Virginia) feels that war with the mother country is inevitable.

Charles Thomson, who has proved to be an excellent secretary of the Congress, calmly analyzed the situation for me. "Even yet the wound may be healed and peace and love restored. But we are on the brink of a precipice."

This serious overtone plays through tonight's frivolity. Another ominous note is the report of a package received by Joseph Galloway, who led the loyalist faction here. Inside, supposedly, he found a halter and insurance policy and a message: "Hang yourself or we shall do it for you." Turk has been attempting to authenticate this report, without success so far.

Whether or not this Congress has been a success, only time will tell. If the grievances of the colonies are not resolved by May 10 of next year, another Congress will be convened here. That resolution was among the final acts of the delegates today.

The next move is up to Britain.

THE REVS. COFFIE AND ADAMS AND MRS. AMELIA HOUSTON
...are scheduled to take part in Southeast Florida church convention.

Association to Convene

The Greater South Florida Association will convene at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church of Belle Glade, the Rev. E. Coffie, pastor, Nov. 5-10.

Association officers residing in Belle Glade and who will take part in the proceedings include the Rev. J.B. Adams, pastor of St. John First Baptist Church, who will act as moderator; Mrs. Amelia Houston, president of the Senior Women's Department and Mrs. W. M. White, counselor to the Young People's Department.

The theme for the association is "Christian Compassion Reaching Toward All People."

Matt. 9:36-38. Rev. Coffie, Rev. Adams, Mrs. Houston and Mrs. White extended an invitation to the entire city of Belle Glade to attend the convention for missions and Christian education.

The program will open Nov. 5 with a welcome by Rev. Adams and the meeting will get off to an official start Wednesday morning.

Wednesday's program is made up for and of deacons and deaconesses. Many of the guests will be participating.

Thursday will feature the moderator's annual message and one of the participating pastors will deliver the educational message that night.

At this time, a representative of Florida Memorial College will be present. Many educational workshops will be presented throughout the convention and the public is invited to share in them.

Friday will be Senior Women's Day. Mrs. Houston, president, and co-workers have set up the program for that day. Mrs. Houston will present her annual message that afternoon.

The crowning of the queen will be held Friday evening for the senior women's department.

Children and youths will be "on parade" Saturday. The Children's Department Session will be held Saturday morning and the Young People's program will be held that afternoon, beginning at 2 p.m.

The Youth's guest speaker will be Mrs. W. C. Taylor. Mrs. Taylor has worked with youths in church and social activities.

He is a former student of Palm Beach Atlantic College, West Palm Beach.

He is invited to share in them.

Glades Senior Commended

A Senior at Glades Day School has been named the Merit Program Commended Student by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Headmistress Mrs. Miriam Burgess announced that Tom Wilkinson has received a Letter of Commendation. Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wilkinson of Pahokee.

Tom is among the 38,000 Commended students named on the basis of their high performance on the 1973 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT-NMSQT).

Over one million students from more than 17,000 secondary schools took the test in October of 1973.

Commended students are in the upper two per cent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1975. Although the Commended students ranked high on the PSAT-NMSQT, their scores were just below those of the 15,000 Semifinalists who were announced by NMSQT. Commended students do not continue in the Merit Scholarship competition.

Edward C. Smith, president of NMSQT, said: "The high standing of Commended students in the Merit Program shows their great promise, and their attainment in this nationwide program deserves public recognition."

The Commended students should be encouraged to continue their education. Both these students and out our nation will benefit from their further educational and personal development."

To increase their scholarship opportunities NMSQT reports the Commended students' names to the regionally accredited colleges they named as their first and second choices when they took the PSAT-NMSQT in October of 1973. The reports include home addresses, test scores and anticipated college major and career intentions of the Commended students.
